LASHED TO THE RAILS.

Tough Experience on the Bark Exile.

New York, June 19. The steamship Exile, from Cardiff to day brought to port Capt. George T. Pearce and crew of the bark Exile, of St. John, N. B., which was wrecked in the gale of the 10th inst. The Exile had the mainmast gone, the foremast and mainmast masts all gone, and the ship with the sea was entirely over her. All her boats were gone, and the crew were on the poop deck lashed to the rails and were rescued by the officers of the Exile after a hard struggle. They saved nothing. Capt. Pearce is badly bruised and cut.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

New Orleans, June 19. A special from Paris Valley, I. T., says the 40 Chikassaw militia who left here Wednesday in charge of Governor Hyatt and United States Agent Bennett to meet the United States troops west of here and eject some 6,000 persons who are living in the country without permits, all got drunk and were in the place. They had a barrel of whiskey in the commissary wagon and a gallon of rum each. It is feared that they will cause a loss of several lives, as when they caught their only desire is to shoot and kill.

CRIMES AND THEIR CONSEQUENCES.

Two Murderers Sentenced, One to Die by Electricity.

New York, June 19. Fernando Legra, convicted of murder in the second degree, was sentenced to-day to imprisonment for life.

Henry C. Faneling who murdered his wife, was sentenced to the electric chair this morning to die by electricity. The work began July 27.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

Washington, June 19. The United States Treasury statement, issued to-day, but bearing date June 17th, shows an apparent deficiency of $78,108. This, however, does not include the $24,627,412 on deposit with the national banks of the $20,250,950 of fractional silver. Including these two items the cash balance is $1,061,264.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

The officials at the Secretary's office say that, exclusive of the National Bank deposits and fractional silver, there is an actual available balance of $2,812,000 in the Treasury to-day and that the Treasury statement, including receipts to that date, will show it.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

There is a constant excess of receipts over expenditures during the remainder of the month and it is estimated that the net surplus will be at least $7,000,000 by the first of July.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

The Treasury officials are not satisfied by the situation and say the Government is amply able to meet all its obligations.

REMARKS OF HON. J. B. LAMKIN.

DETROIT, Mich., June 19. A special from Amsterdam, Ont., says that a man from the crew of the steam barge Jane Cook came on board the vessel late last night. A row ensued between the crew and other members of the crew in which revolvers were used freely and six men received bullet wounds, including Capt. Thompson and Peter Ruppelle, who are probably fatally injured.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19. The jury in the suit of Meyer & Dickinson against the Government to recover excess of duties levied on material used as hat trimmings, this morning returned a verdict for the plaintiffs. By day the verdict for some twenty to thirty million of dollars was collected in duties from importers of millinery throughout the country. The Government will appeal to the Supreme Court.

A Pitiful Exhibition.

In view of the affliction suffered by this community in the Mayoralty of 1873, it is saying a great deal to declare that no other Chief Magistrate of Bangor has ever presented himself before the public in such humiliating and pitiable attitude as that assumed by Mayor Snow in his reply to the inquiry of the Republican City Committee as to his authority and reason for ignoring the rights and wishes of the Republican party in the appointment of members of the Board of Registration.

MAJORS OFFICE.

Mr. Trask, Esq., Chairman Republican City Committee.
Sir: Yours of yesterday by special delivery is at hand, in which you wish to be informed for whom reason and what authority you (I assumed to appoint Mr. Harlow and ignore Mr. Marston who was legally appointed) wish us for that position. In reply to your inquiry permit me to call your attention to chapter II, section 2, entitled "an act to provide a board of registration," the terms of which were approved February 25th, 1891, in which you will find the following: "Each shall be nominated by the city committee of his own political party." "If either or both of said political parties for the space of seven days after the approval of this act."

Having waited a longer time than seven days after the approval of the act without receiving any notice from the Republican City Committee, we are hereby notified to nominate a number of the board I appointed William H. Harlow, a Republican, a member of said board.

We are sorry that any man who could be elected to the chief executive office of our city should be willing to offer such an excuse for evading a plain and simple duty in order to deprive one half of his fellow citizens of their rights in matters that should be above the suspicion of partisan bias.

The more the facts are examined the more indefensible will appear the Mayor's attempt to take advantage of the pretext for violating the spirit and defeating the unmistakable purpose of the law to permit each of the principal parties to select their own representatives upon the Board of Registration.

After providing for the appointment of one member by the Governor of the State, the Act proceeds to say:

"The other two members of the board shall be chosen, one from the political party polling the greatest number of votes for Governor in the State at the preceding State election, and one from the political party polling the next highest number of votes for Governor in the State at said election."

"Majors of said cities shall appoint such persons to nominated members of said board. If either or both of the said parties, for the space of seven days after the approval of this act, or after a vacancy occurs in said board, fail to nominate a member of such board, and to notify the Mayor of such city thereof, said Mayor shall select and appoint such member."

"The provisions were drafted when it was contemplated that the Act would be applied to the election of last spring, but, as will be remembered, the passage of the law was so delayed that it was believed that there would not be sufficient time to put it in operation so soon, and in its first passage it was amended in the House as follows:

"But the provisions of this act shall not apply to the selection of last spring, but in any of the cities in which such elections are held or to the preparation and revision of the lists thereof."

The omission to modify some of the other provisions of the Act to conform to this change, left the clauses fixing the time for appointments somewhat involved, but it was held by the framers of the Act that it would be governed by the general law under which a statute becomes effective in thirty days after the passage of the legislature passing it, and that the seven days limitation would be run at the expiration of the thirty days.

I under this construction the Republican City Committee of Bangor on May 20th, within the period believed to be the intent of the law as finally passed, notified the Mayor of the selection of Charles L. Marston for appointment as the Republican member of the Board. No appointment had then been made, and no occasion for making appointments had arisen, as the law was called upon to revise the voting lists will not occur until next March, three-quarters of a year hence.

That the Mayor was not kept waiting for the nomination of the Republican member is clearly shown by the statement of Chairman Trask, who informs us that after he had sent in the official notification he personally spoke of it to the Mayor, who acknowledged having received it, but said there was no occasion for hurry in making the appointments, and in fact, no appointments were announced until the middle of June.

So, the Mayor was not compelled to make a selection because he was personally or officially ignorant of the choice of the Republican party as notified to him by the committee designated in the law, and no pretense about technicalities will relieve him from the responsibility of having deliberately ignored the rights and preferences of the law was intended to guard.

Why did Mayor Snow fail to appoint the nominees of the Republican City Committee? We think to state the only obvious answer to that question, and were relieved from the necessity by the swarming eagerness with which his political organ rushes forward to boast that the Mayor "caught the Republican City Committee" "napping."

So, this is the dignified employment of the Chief Magistrate of the Queen City of the East—to catch his fellow-citizens of the Republican party "napping" if he can contrive an opportunity to defraud them of their political rights.

We have no desire and have no need to comment further upon this astounding delinquency of the Mayor and his party.

by the Fifty-first Congress, and recently that great apostle of Democracy, the late Grover Cleveland, has been fit to arrange the Republican party for extravagance and to call special attention to the demoralizing influence of large appropriations. I beg to remind my Democratic friend that this country is growing and that the appropriations must necessarily increase year after year. The receipts of the Post Office Department are no doubt the best attainable test of the growth of the country. The following figures illustrate this and reveal the fact that the increase of the receipts of the postal service shows a greater percentage than the increase of the appropriations of the Fifty-first Congress. In other words, if the appropriations for the service of all the departments of the Government were to be measured by the growth of the postal receipts, the appropriations for the years of 1891 and 1892 would be one hundred millions greater than they are.

Table with 3 columns: Fiscal year, Fiscal year, Percent increase.

It is well to call the attention of the country, and especially of our Democratic friends, to the fact that this Nation is constantly growing. When they riposte, let them say that a billion-dollar Congress, we can reply that this is a billion-dollar country, and that with the increase of the money living it will become a two billion country. (It is not my purpose to understate the defense of all the appropriations that were made by the Republican Congress just retired. There are some appropriations that should not have been made, but all of the character were approved as much by Democrats as by Republicans. As to the appropriations made for government purposes, the only question to be considered should be, "Is the Treasury in such financial condition as to be able to pay them, and are they, in the light of the necessities of our people justifiable?" All of this character are defensible upon the grounds of the public good. Of the $170,000,000 of increase in appropriations, $60,000,000 is for the postal service. This represents simply the growth of the country for two years, in fact, this is not an appropriation in the ordinary sense of the term.

All the government pays out of the vast appropriation made for the postal service is the difference between the receipts for postage and the expense of the service, which is annually perhaps five or six millions of dollars. No Democrat can object to the increase of appropriations for this purpose. A large increase is in the matter of postage. The appropriations for postage for 1891 and 1892 are over $400,000,000. We may as well understand that there is a public sentiment in the country that will push forward the claims of the soldier until all who supported his lives that the Union might live shall come within the folds of the pension laws of the country. Does any Democrat object to the increase of $110,000,000 in appropriations for this purpose? If he does let him say so. This is an increased appropriation of $50,000,000 for census purposes, this of course cannot be added. Does any Democrat object to this? There was an increased appropriation of $11,000,000 for new ships and for the Navy. In a few years more, unless Democratic economy steps in the way, our navy will be the pride of the Nation, and an enormous help to our diplomacy. Does any Democrat object to this? Large appropriations were made for the Agricultural Department. These appropriations have been used by the present Secretary, Frederick Russell, in the most judicious way for the good of the country. Every farmer in the land has felt the revivifying influence of the proper application of the large appropriations made for the Agricultural Department. Already a decided advance has taken place in the price of cattle and hogs. Does any Democrat object to this?

Increased appropriations to the extent of nearly $5,000,000 were made for river and harbor improvements. We have not yet said a little bit of my own observation on this subject. In my early business life, at that time, the water in the harbor was but eight or ten feet of water in the harbor and sandy harbors, about twelve or fourteen feet at Cleveland, and eight or nine at New York. A vessel that would carry from twenty to twenty-five thousand bushels of wheat could not get into the harbor, but a vessel that was looked upon as a fair rate for carrying grain in these vessels from Toledo to Buffalo, and 4 or 5 cents from Chicago.

The charge was $1000 less, and was often higher. In the time that has intervened perhaps five or six millions of dollars have been expended upon the improvement. A propeller will now tow two or three barges, from Chicago to Buffalo, carrying 10,000 bushels each, at a rate not exceeding 2 cents per bushel, and this clearly demonstrating that the farmers of Ohio and the West and Northwest reap the benefit of the improvement. Do my Democratic friends object to the increased appropriations for this purpose? No one who is intelligent can object to the increase of $3,000,000 for harbor defense is not entirely justified.

$800,000 was appropriated for the purpose of refunding the direct taxes paid to the States during the war. Of this sum $200,000 was paid to Ohio, knowing as I do the condition of the finances of the State and the causes that have led it to the verge of bankruptcy, I am sure that Governor Campbell and other Democrats will object to the appropriation that has for the time being bridged over a most embarrassing situation.

Now, my friends, I have gone over substantially the items of increased expenditures of the last Congress, and these appropriations of such a character as to be put upon the grounds of sound public policy, and in the condition of the revenue such as to justify them. I answer yes. I know it is fashionable for our opponents to talk about a bankrupt Treasury and to pretend that we do not have the money to pay the interest on the bonds of the country. The present Administration has paid $210,000,000 of the bonded debt of the country. Speaking from a thorough knowledge of the subject, I make the point that before the end of two years we will have money enough to meet the expense of the government, and add a handsome sum to that already paid on the bonded debt of the country.

Comment is made upon a proposition recently made by the Treasury Department to extend at a low rate of interest $10,000,000 of the Government bonds, which the government has the option to pay on the first day of September next. A popular misapprehension prevails in regard to the maturing government debt. United States bonds are payable on certain dates at the option of the government. If it chooses not to pay, and to make no arrangement for their extension, the holders cannot call upon the government to pay them, and the rate of interest specified in the bond continues to be paid until the government makes a legal call for the surrender of the bonds. This proposed action is extending the 4 1/2 per cent bonds has been taken for prudential reasons and in the hope that by extending them we may be enabled to induce the National banks to buy them as a basis for the issue of additional circulation medium. If our hopes are realized we will be able to add $25,000,000 in National Bank notes to the currency of the country. This we think will be in view of the fact that recently more than $200,000,000 of our gold coin has been exported to Europe. There is no doubt that the bonds can be extended without a credit to that such a bond would sell at a small premium.
